Fox River Grove Appoints New Police Chief

FOX RIVER GROVE— Sergeant Eric Waitrovich was appointed to Fox River Grove’s top law enforcement position at Thursday’s Village Board Meeting.

Waitrovich will succeed Chief Ron Lukasik, who retires September 1, 2017 after 25 years with the Police Department. Waitrovich’s appointment will become effective September 2nd.

“I am pleased to announce the appointment of Eric Waitrovich as Police Chief,” Village President Robert J. Nunamaker said. “He is an excellent police officer, and has shown an outstanding acumen for leadership that has earned the admiration of the other members of the Police Department and the Fox River Grove community.”

Waitrovich joined the Village as a Police Officer in 2007, and has a Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science from Saint Norbert College. Upon being promoted to Sergeant in 2013, Waitrovich completed the Police Staff and Command course at Northwestern University. As Sergeant, Waitrovich was responsible for managing the daily operations for the Police Department, including oversight of training, scheduling, and patrol related functions.
