Status: Food & Music at Carnival

Committee met at Lion's Park to go over details and logistics. Food vendors are: Lions Club – beverages, hot dogs, brats and sweet corn; Boy Scout Troop 166 - pulled pork and nachos; Primo Pizza – pizza on Sunday; Library – DQ Blizzards; and Foxy's River Snack Shop. We haven't heard from the apple lady.

Status: Advance Carnival Wristbands

Robert Nunamaker reported that vouchers will be for sale at various locations such as Jewel, Brunch Café and the FRG Village Hall. He is going to see if the Library would be interested. We will only be accepting checks and cash for the exact amount. Vouchers will then be turned in at the carnival for the wristbands. Volunteers are needed to help at the carnival.

Status: Centennial Parade

Jamie Dimmick announced that the Oscar Meyer Weiner mobile will be participating. They have asked to be the last entry so that they are available for photo opportunities. Currently there are 34 entries and a few more need to be confirmed. Lineup will be at train station. Parade route will be Lincoln to Gladys to S. River to Beachway to the Lions Park. Barb will send a notice out to the residents on the parade route letting them know that during the parade the streets will be closed to traffic.

Status: Trolley Tours

The trolley tours for August are sold out. Pam Losey, President of the Cary Grove Historical Society will be giving the presentation.

Update: Rescheduled Baseball Game

Bob Nunamaker reported that the baseball game will not be rescheduled as the McHenry County Historical Society couldn't find teams.

New Year's Eve Progress

Save the Date information will be sent out in the fall.

Swag and Gifts

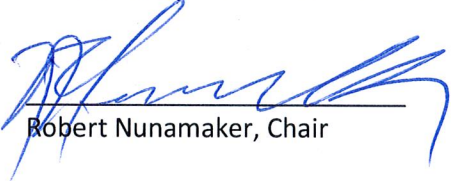

Jennifer Curtiss reported that she will be selling items at the August trolley tour and at the carnival. Jennifer passed out postcards that need to be distributed throughout town. Jamie Dimmick will check with District #3 about sending them home with the students. Marylou Nunamaker volunteered to pass them out to the Library, Brunch Café, Yummy Asian Bistro. Other sites were discussed.

Other Business

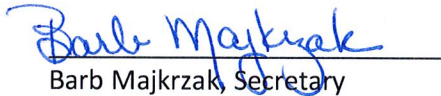

Barb Majkrzak reported that she stopped by the FRG Memorial Library to see what fun things they are doing for Centennial Week at the Library. She told the members that they should stop in.

Adjournment

Jennifer Curtiss made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by Lee Powers. All in favor. The meeting adjourned at 7:10 p.m. The next meeting will be September 10th at 7 p.m.
