Fox River Grove Renames Village Hall to Honor Nunamaker

FOX RIVER GROVE— On Tuesday, the Fox River Grove Village Board adopted a resolution to rename its village hall the Robert J. Nunamaker Village Hall. Nunamaker led the Village for twelve years, and his tenure was marked by many successes including securing the Village a new train station facility, the construction of a Public Works facility, and investing over $500,000 in its parks, all while making the Village a debt-free community. During his time at the helm, the Village also celebrated its Centennial Anniversary.

Perhaps the biggest focus for Nunamaker was his commitment to making the Village a better place to do business. This focus is exemplified by the addition of new businesses like Avante Banquets and Culvers, as well as his efforts to position the Village for downtown redevelopment.

Plans are underway to have this honor commemorated through the installation of lettering on the south side of the Village Hall (see photo), which is located at 305 Illinois Street in Fox River Grove. The work should be completed in May.
